

Reception News Summer

The children have been discovering the forest area and learning their boundaries within it. They found rabbit holes, hedgehog houses and insect homes before looking for different colours to match the pallet they were given. The children were able to talk about the activities.

